BIOGRAPHIC INFORMATION

Ms. Johnson has a multi-jurisdictional practice and offers both in-person and virtual mediations and arbitrations. She is well known for her interpersonal skills and persistence in successfully resolving cases which she mediates. Her past litigation and mediation experience is wide-ranging and included business and commercial; general civil; tort; probate and estate; class actions; premises liability; health care, real estate and a broad range of employment matters. Examples include breach of contract, non-competition agreements, hospital privileges; claims for deceptive and unfair trade practices; fiduciary litigation involving undue influence; employment-related matters in state and federal court; real estate litigation, wrongful death; breach of guaranty agreements; fraud in the inducement; legal and medical malpractice; false arrest; trademark infringement; invasion of privacy; false light, defamation, nursing home litigation; and False Claims Act claims involving Medicaid reimbursement.

She is a Past President of The Florida Bar, the third woman elected; she was the first woman elected President of the Tallahassee Bar Association; and is a past President of the Tallahassee Women Lawyers. Ms. Johnson is AV® rated by Martindale-Hubbell, and repeatedly named as a Florida Super Lawyer and Legal Elite. Immediately prior to becoming a full-time mediator and arbitrator, Ms. Johnson opened and managed the Tallahassee office of Baker, Donelson, Bearman, Caldwell & Berkowitz for eight years.
